THE THOMAS STATUE. -The bronze equestrian statue constructed by order of the Society of the Army of the Cumberland to commemorate the military achievements of Major Gev. George H. Thomas was unveiled at Washington yesterday with a good deal of coremony. The statue, which has been erceled in "the sirele," out Massachusetts Avenue, was designad and executed by the sculptor, J. Q. A.

The procession was fully described in the Washington letter, in yesterday's Gazette.
At the circle the President and Catinet took seats in front on the stand which had been prepared for them. The crowd at the circle was one of the largest ever gathered in Washington. The exercises were of a very interesting character, and somewhat novel, including so artillery accompaniment to the hymns. They consisted of a prayer by Rev. Dr. Pexton, of the New York Avenue Church, who served during the last war as a private in a volunteer Pennsylvania company. "Hail to the Chief, by the Marine Band, and the "Star Spangles Banner," condered by the male chorus of Obic volunteers, one hundred voices, accompanied by the full Marine band drum corps, Battery A of the Second Artillery from Fort Molleury and Battery C of the Third Artillery, formerly commanded by Gen. Brag during the Mexican war and subsequently by Gen. Thomas. Each of the batteries was alligned on Massachusetts avonue and M. street, the guns facing eastward and were fixed by electricity, the wires being under the emmediate control of Lautenant Swift of the signal corps, and all under the di rection of Mr. L. M. Gangor. The statue was then unveiled by the soulptor smid the roor of the cannonade of a major general's salute, in which the gues at Fort Whipple perticipated.

J. Max Webber, respectively. Then followed the eration by Hen. Stanley Matthews, who delivered a long address culo gistic of Gen. Thomas, and concluded by presetting the statue to President Hayes for the people of the United States, and on behalf of the Army of the Cumberland.

Then was sung the "Grand Hymne," the wor is written and the masic composed for the occasion by Mr. Herbert A Proston and Prof.

President Hayes accepted the statue and the expreises closed.

The statue is about 16 feet in height. Gen. Thomas is represented as having suddenly cheeked his borse on the summait of a slight acclivity to make an observation, and he sits with loosened rein and hat off, surveying the field with searching eye. The horse looks abroad with head raised high in the air, swelling neek and chest, and fore fact firmly planted on a strip of rock, His main and uplifted tail are tossed by the wind and one of his hind feet on the slope is placed before the other. Rider licheries. and steed are ereet and eager at the first view, and full of the glow caused by the quick ride up the ascent. The former sits easily, firmly and straight, leaning slightly backward with the action of the horse, and in his effort to get the furthest possible horizon. With his left hand he holds the rein, while in his right hand, going down to the saddle cloth, he holds his slouch hat and gloves. The figures are about twice life size. The color of the bronze is clear light from almost the natural color of the alloy. The statue cost $40,000.

There was a general illumination of the gov croment offices and stores along Pennsylvania Avenue last night.

Exercises were held in the large tent south of the Executive Mansien, commencing at S only eccupies one hole on the stove. It can be o'clock, at which speeches were made by Judge Arthur McArthur, Gen. A. G. McCook. Gen. Sherman, Gen. Buell, Gen. McDawell, Gen. Garffeld, Gen. VanVliet, Secretary Me. Crary, Gen. Sleeum and Attorney General Dovens. A poom was also read by Miss Apoli Stery.

To-DAY, -This has been a freliesome rott of a day. First it the tered a little, there exist a enow equal; then the blustering increased until the wind fairly bowled, and nebedy went eat who could stay in doors, ar, that is, very few. Some ladies ventured our, but it was a ven furesome venture, and eventuated in a display lof-earties, that few man would exhibit a turning a corner. Several things were blown away, but no people, so far as heard of, although if some of the "light weights" had been caught out everything would have been no with them. Just why the wind should have kicked up a much fuss to day is a thing that no fellow ern well tell unless it may be accounted for upon the hypothesis of the meeting of such ice on gruous elements at the seat of Old Probager-

THE FOLAR WAVE - During the past thirty six hoors a veritable "poler wave" has passed over this locality. The weather has turned much celder and overcoats, winter underelathing and blankets have been hauled forth from the dosota where they were deposited last spring, and the unfortunate pedestrious, whom fall compelled to apend the day on the streets have been going around with blue neses and turned up coat collars looking for all the world like the'v had been rolled in the snow. Apropos of snow, there was quite a enew sterm about eight o'clock this morning. It lasted for about haif an hour, and the feathery flakes came down thickly. The ground was the warm, however, and the ency melted quickly away. During the rest of the day the weather had been cold and the wind high, and this evening there was another enow "flurry.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS - A special meeting of the Beard of Supervisors of Alexandria county was helf at the Court House yesterday.

Present: W. A. Rowe, chairmann, and Travis

A number of accounts against the county for olection expenses, &c., were audited, allowed and warrants issued for the same.

f The clerk was instructed to have new bailet boxes made for the several magisterial districts. The clerk was also instructed to make a tabu lar statement, showing the amount draws upon each fund annually since July 1, 1875, and the outstanding indebtedness by the county up to December 1, 1870. The Board then adjourned to meet Do

FIRE,-There was an alarm of fire at 10:30 lo'cleck, this morning. Of course such a call loa so windy and blustery a morning created considerable alarm, and the firemen and citi-Land generally turned out quickly. The engines and curiages were carried to the head of King street wheree the alarm preceded, but no ceeasion for their services was found. It was ubsequently ascertained that the alarm was car sed by fire on the roof of a small frame bous, on Commerce street, between Payne and

West s. rects, which was extinguished by the neighbor. '-

FLEET IN THE RIVER -Captains of vossels arriving here report a very large fleet of leaded vessels in the n ver bound up. The contrary winds are keeping, them back, and they will probab'y not arrivo here until to morrow at the earliest. Most of the vessels are loaded with Anthracite coal for this city and Washington, but some of them have paving blocks and miscollaneous cargoos. The captain of the sahoonor Henry R. Congdon reports twenty five sail

THE GALE.—The high northwest winds of the pest tweety four hours have resulted in making very lew tides and considerably moved ing pavigation. Numbers of sailing visicle had to east are hor and steamboats bound up the river are retarded very much in making their regular time. In the city most of the damage has been confined to the blowing down of trees and finees. The only roof blown off was that of the stable of Mrs. Bridget Travis, on Pricess street, between Fairfax and Royal

Passengers from Loudoun county this evening report the gale there as very severe, many trees and fences being blown down

RIFORM CLUB NOTES .- The c'ub hall was thioaged all last evening and twenty names were added to the pledge and membership of the organization. Mr. Alexander Egglesion, of Washington, popularly know as "Bud" Egglesion, now him e'f's reformed man, is to address the club at their headquarters to merrow night. The paperhangers are at work on the wail of the hall to day and the painting is about com-

TABLEAUX AND MUSICAL ENTERTAINMENT The beauty and wit of Alexandria and some from Weshington will be brought into requisi tion to hight at the entertainment to be given at Carenta, Hall for the benefit of the lafirmary. Hardly, if ever, have our citizens had an oppertuesty of or joying such a treat as will be given there to night, and, therefore, it is expected that the hall will be crowded. See the pregramme published elsewhere in the Cozette, and then be sure and ge, not only for your own objeyment but f.r the good of these who need succes. Get yea, let all the people get PANIC -Quire a panic was created on the 10:30 n. m. boar, from this city to Washington, yesterday. Many of the ladies on board became much flightened at the listing of the boat caused by the large number of people on board, and it is whispered that many of the more pervens of the men shared their fears. The panie was prenounced by competent indees to be estirely usualled for, the boots being capable of safely transporting all the passengers who could be gotten en beard.

Annearen.-John Lags, colored, was arrested by Officer Latten, on Queen street, for an assault on Sophronia Perguson, also colored, in Buzuard's Recet last Moudny night. Laws is a notorious character, very fleet of foot, and generally saccreds in giving leg bail. He resisted the officer, and was only retured by the assistance of Mr. John H. Wilson, whem Mr. Latten summened to his assistance.

NEW YORK, Nev. 20.—The pole; this morting found the drawned body of an ucknewa man lying on the shores outside of Whitchall Basen, where it had been deposited by the tide. The man was apparently a Spaniard, and both his hands were found to be tied bebind his back with a strong cord, and a white handkerchief was tied over his eyes and knowted at the back. He was respectably dressed, having the appercance of a waiter, and nothing was found on his person by which he could be [COMMUNICATED. We are pleased to learn from the Gazotta that the place in the Board of Commissioners of the District of Columbia, vacated by the resignation of Capt. Phelps, is likely to be filled by a resident of the District-one who is of the people, who knows the wants of the people, and who will be recentable to the people.

Thomas Somerville has already perved the sablic and is well known, and needs no ru legy of ours; whatever he has done in a public or private caracity, has been well done, and we think a residence of many years in Washington is made in his layor, and that the President will do the people a favor and himself credit by conferring the appoint ment on Mr. Somerville.

Through her civilians and soldiers Alexandria yesterday held a conspicious position in the grand civic and military procession at the National Capital, and reflected credit upon our State. This was in a great measure due to the energy and public spirit of Mayor Smith, who took the lead in having our people represented upon the coasion, and thus obtained recognition of the life and vim of our city.
